

Communities
arts nsw

Media Release

17 June 2010

For Immediate Release

Second Concert for the 'Bush Concert Project' – Shaula Salathe

South West Music in partnership with South West Arts received Arts NSW funding through the Regional Conservatorium Association, to hold a series of concerts in 2010 titled "The Bush Concert Project".

The second concert to tour will be Shaula Salathé. Shaula is one of Australia's leading singer-harpists. Her golden voice (Phantom of the Opera) teamed with her extraordinary musical talent (concert pianist, composer, arranger) reaches an ethereal level when teamed with the glorious sounds of the ancient Celtic harp.

Regional Arts Development Officer, Alyce Fisher commented "She makes incredibly beautiful music, and is returning to the region by popular request."

Shaula will be performing at the Deniliquin Town Hall 25 June 8pm. Bishop's Lodge, Hay 26 June 2pm. Rivadesta, Darlington Point 27 June 12.30pm. This performance is funded by the Regional Conservatorium Association and is a partnership between South West Music and South West Arts. Please contact South West Music 03 5881 4736 or South West Arts 03 5881 7749

The next concert to tour will be Mal Web, a vocal adventurer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist from Melbourne, dates and venues for these performances are yet to be confirmed.

Hay – Bishop's Lodge

When: 2pm - Saturday 26th June 2010

Cost: $10 adults, school-aged children - free.

Darlington Point - Rivadestra

When: 12:30pm - Saturday 27th June 2010

Cost: $35 including lunch

For more information contact: South West Arts PH: 03 5881 7749 or South West Music PH: 03 5881 4736